THREE FOOLS IN A FIX

EVANGELIST KINDRED'S SUBJECT AT LAST NIGHT'S SERVICES CHRISTIAN CHURCH RE-VIVAL.

PAY YOUR DEBTS OR GO TO JAIL

Will Be Tonight's Subject—Large Throngs Attending—Prospects for a Big Meeting.

Sunday morning at the Christian church, the first service of the revival series was held. There was a good attendance of the members who heard with intense interest Rev. Kindred's sermon on "The Relation of the Disciple to the World."

A large crowd attended the open air service Sunday evening. Seats, platform and electric lights have been well arranged on the Presbyterian lawn where immense crowds can be comfortably seated. Rev. C. E. Smoot, pastor of the Christian church, extended a hearty welcome to all to attend the services. He announced that there would be no collection taken for the preacher and choir leader, as the members of his church had already made provision for them. At every evening service everyone will be afforded an opportunity to contribute toward the incidental expenses, lights, seats, etc. Still, the seats were free and he didn't want any one to feel that they had to pay a cent if they really didn't want to.

The musical director, C. A. Gardner, of Chickasha, invited all the singers of the town to participate in the song service. He said that in a few meetings they would all become acquainted and be accustomed to each others peculiarities, the new would be worn off and everything running smoothly.

Miss Gertrude Thompson favored the audience with a beautiful solo, accompanied by Mr. Gardner.

Those who had read the announcement of Rev. Kindred's subject for Sunday evening "Three Fools in a Fix," were curious to hear his sermon. The scripture reading was from the 14th chapter of Luke, where Christ's teaching humility is related, when He told them they should make a dinner not for their kinsmen, brethren or rich neighbors, that they might be bidden again and be recompensed, but they should call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind if they would be blessed. The preacher asked any in the in the congregation to rise if they had prepared a dinner and invited the poor, lame, and blind. The congregation remained seated.

The text for his discussion was the parable of the great supper, dwelling on excuse making, using for example the three men who were invited to the feast and made excuses for not accepting the invitation. He stated that not every man could attain some high position or make a success of a certain profession, but anybody could become very proficient as an excuse maker. "Excuses are as old as man. From the time of Adam down to the present hour, men and women have been given to excuse making. Mr. Moody said all excuses are lies. I cannot say all excuses are lies, but I do believe that a great many excuses are unadulterated lies some-

A Main street property owner declares that the integrity of Main street property values shall not be sacrificed by the limited number of moss backers. He declares that the excuse to wait until the cotton is marketed will not bear scrutiny. He believes that if such delay occurs, the same parties will insist on further delay on account of cold weather. Summing up the consequences of a delay of paving until next summer, it is his opinion, that soon after the first of the year, the season of the visits of the prospectors, that a comparison by them of the difference in the appearance and progressiveness of Main street and 12th street will elevate the values of the latter above those of the former.
While admitting such assertion by the Main street property owner to be pretty strong it is thought not improbable that there will result less solidarity in Main street property values and less permanency in rental income unless the streets under consideration be paved by the first of the year.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Both Bereaved of Fathers, Must Comfort Each Other, the Father of Each Died Within Three Weeks of the Other.

F. L. Neal received the sad announcement of the death of his father, E. C. Neal, at Washington. The deceased was 65 years old and had held a government position for 25 years.

It was impossible for Mr. Neal to attend his father's funeral, as he is suffering severely with rheumatism. It has been only three weeks since Mrs. Neal's father, J. M. Barbee, died at Marshall, Tex.

Misses Benlah and Iva Travillion who have been visiting Helen Lee returned to Shawnee yesterday.

Important Notice.
The property owners on Main street from the Frisco railroad to the Katy railroad, and on Townsend and Broadway avenues from Twelfth street to the Frisco railroad, are hereby urgently requested to meet with the city council tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at the Club rooms, for the purpose of discussing the paving of the above named streets, and deciding on the proper width for side walks on same. Let every body interested be present, as this is a matter of urgent importance.
L. J. LITTLE, Mayor.

BIG BILL TAFT A BIG TRAVELER

HE WILL HAVE TRAVELED 221,000 MILES SINCE 1900 AFTER NEXT TRIP.

SOUTHWEST AS HOST

Schedule for Swing Around Country Calls for Journey of 21,290 Miles.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—William Howard Taft must have been stung by the wanderlust bug early in life, for he is never so happy as when hiking over the globe. He is one of "our leading tourists," and in the last few years has been almost continuously on the jump.

At the end of his coming tour, in which the president will make a swing of 13,000 miles around the circle of the United States, he will have traveled over 221,000 miles since the latter part of May, 1900, or a distance equal to over nine trips around the world.

When Mr. Taft became governor of the Philippines on May 24, 1900, he commenced a series of travels that has probably never before been equalled by a public man. In 1900 and 1901 he traveled 24,750 miles; he almost equalled the record in 1902, when he covered 23,145 miles; 1903 was an off year with the distinguished tourist, only having biked 8,000 miles across country and sea; in 1904 he did 11,724 miles, but he took a spurt in 1905 and covered 23,145 miles; 1906 he skinned over oceans, plains and mountains to the tune of 38,950; but during 1909, when he was running for president and had some excuse to tour, he traveled 47,270 miles; so far in 1909, including his forthcoming tour of the states, he will have traveled 21,290 miles.

He states that Ada strikes him as being the best town he ever saw. He seems to want to get in bad, but not a single business building for rent. He searched the city over, but nary one was to be had.

Three men were invited to a great gospel feast. The gospel is represented as a great feast. It is not said these men had an excuse, but they made an excuse. If you ask men today why they don't become a christian, they just make an excuse, and if you put that excuse under the divine light, it won't stand the test.

Sold his soul for a piece of land. The first man who was invited said, "I have bought a piece of ground and I must needs go and see it. I pray thee to have me excused." I suppose the land might have gotten away while he was gone. The feast, I believe he just had. That land in his mind, and you might say, bought it sight unseen. If he did that he was not a very good business man. He sold his soul for a piece of land. That is what many men are doing today. Christ wants you to understand that the soul is worth more than anything in the world. He said, "What shall it profit a man if he

THE SO-CALLED CONVERTED JEW MAKES HIS REPLY TO S. I. TOBIAS

I sincerely regret that I am compelled to answer to the cowardly attack made on me by one S. I. Tobias. He writes that I am a converted Jew. Some people are too dull of comprehension to understand what they read. I am a Jew and I am proud of it and never had cause to deny my religion. I have not lived in my midst a long time, being only a comparative stranger here, but I can always go back to where I came from. I am here to make a living. I cannot stand your insults and abuses through the newspapers. I am working for the Texas Department store, one of the liveliest, biggest and best stores in the state. They are doing the business and I am proud of it. Mr. Wall, the manager, is a live(wide-awake man that deserves credit for what he has done in the way of putting prices down to all races all over this section.

Now, Mr. Tobias, I stand on my own footing, protected by the Texas Department store army. What I want is free advertising for the Texas Department store, the people that are with me and whom I am working for are bustlers and doing the business. This fight between the merchants and the Texas Department store was brought on through jealousy of some of the merchants in the city of Ada. I know Mr. Wall did not start it and the Levinsky sale was a scheme to get free advertising matter and that S. I. Tobias took it upon himself to try and create a sensation against the Texas Department store. His followers that took up his fight only acted suckers in getting in the wagon and following him.

The big sale is now on. Come quick for bargains. B. SUNDAREM.

OUR GUTHRIE CORRESPONDENT.

Guthrie, Sept. 11.—Murder will out, and the sins of omission are as heavy on the conscience as those of commission. We have not seen a paragraph in any democratic paper for months reminding the people that the democrats had redeemed all pledges on the Jim Crow proposition, probably because they felt that the democratic party had done its duty and that every body knew of it. The fact that the republican party had pondered to the negro during all the years that Oklahoma was a Territory by refusing to pass a jim crow law is a sin of omission that is worrying part of the republican press and last Thursday a prominent republican paper published at Oklahoma City expressed the belief that the democratic party would tell of this and the two cent fare law when campaign time rolled around. It will not be necessary for the democratic papers to tell about these things for the republican papers and speakers will advertise these things in their attempt to minimize them.

A copy of the session laws bound in leather and containing more than five hundred pages $1.25 at the office of the Secretary of State. This is the democratic price. This is democratic economy. When Oklahoma was a territory a copy of the session law not one-half as large cost $3.00. That was republican prices.
That was republican extravagance.

The commissioner of health is more than a figure head in Oklahoma under the wise management of Dr. J.
C. Mahr the department of health is being made a substantial benefit to the people of the state. The department publishes a valuable bulletin every month which is full of information. It is published for the people and can be had by addressing Dr. J. C. Mahr, Shawnee, Okla.

The office of State Inspector and Examiner is not only for the purpose of discovering and detecting shortages and discrepancies in the accounts of state, county, and city officials but is for the purpose of assisting officials in solving knotty problems in bookkeeping and in establishing a uniform system of bookkeeping all over the state. The books on Choctaw County are now kept in the same manner as the books in Cimarron county. Mr. Taylor and his efficient deputies are experts and under the system that he has established mistakes as well as defalcations will soon be reduced to the minimum.

From every where over the state comes the word that labor is entirely satisfied with the work of not only the Constitutional Convention but also with the first and second legislatures. Labor in the New State has worked in an intelligent and dignified manner and has commanded the attention and respect of the lawmakers.
Had the democratic party done nothing more than give labor its just deserts and restrained the corporations to legitimate profits it would have accomplished more in two years than the republican party did in sixteen years.

By the way, when republicans are criticizing the democratic party for some neglected duty, why don't they explain why they did not do it during those long years they controlled the territory?

Not a minute of sleep has been lost for fear of a bank failure since the guarantee law went into effect in the state of Oklahoma. "A run on the bank" will soon be an obsolete phrase in Oklahoma.

The republican papers have repeatedly charged that the tendency of the democratic laws and of the democratic administration was toward confiscation of property invested in corporations. From the way in which corporations are building railroads, interurbans, packing plants, cement factories, power plants, cotton mills and all kinds of manufacturers it is evident that they enjoy having their money confiscated. There is one thing that the democratic administration insists upon and that is that the corporations pay their just portion of the taxes.

Oklahoma has accomplished as much in an educational way in two years as some of the older states accomplished in a century. Nearly one-half of all our taxes go toward the support of schools and the building of school houses. Is it strange that our taxes are a little high when we have built so many fine school houses and conducted such splendid schools and would any body be willing to take their tax money back and give up our schools?

Our state tax is our lowest tax.
Where the taxpayer pays one dollar to keep up the state he pays one dollar and fifty cents on an average to keep up the township from three to four dollars to pay the expense of keeping up the county and five to eight dollars to keep up the school district. A large portion of the expenses of maintaining the state government is born by fees collected by the Secretary of State from charters, from insurance fees collected by the Insurance Commissioner from insurance companies and from fees collected from corporations, coal and oil companies by the State Auditor. It is probable that the state can be run in a few years without any direct taxation if the income and kindred taxes can legally be assessed and collected.
Republicans are shedding tears on the necks of the socialists because the Taylor election law does not give the Socialists representation on the election boards. Perhaps it is the socialists that will get representation instead of the republicans.

ENTHUSIASTIC SIDNEY WAITS FOR PEARY

COLONY OF ARCTIC EXPLORERS
AS A UNIT IN DISCREDITING COOK.

Believe That Commander Can Incontestibly Substantiate That the Doctor is a Pretender and Imposter.

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 12.—All Sydney awaits the coming of Commander Robert E. Peary to give welcome to the finder of the "big nail," who again sets foot on the American continent.

Mrs. Peary, wife of the Arctic explorer, said tonight that she had received a wireless message from her husband at Battle Harbor saying he is well. Meanwhile the patient woman, who has waited a score of years for the happy fruition of her husband's ambition, is counting the hours until the Roosevelt is sighted.

Commander Peary is moving southward in the same precise manner that characterized his methodical and well calculated dash for the pole.
The Roosevelt is being overhauled and painted at Assizes Harbor, near Battle Harbor and her commander has ordered that every injury sustained in her long stay in the ice cradle of Cape Sheridan shall be removed before she sails for this port.

The bunkers of the Roosevelt are being filled, as it is calculated it will take nearly five days' steady steaming before she reaches this port. Commander Peary in all probability will remain here two days and go with his family to his home on Eagle Island, in Casco Bay, Maine, where he will rest for a day or two, proceeding thence to Washington to make an official report to the government. While here he will confer with Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, and will acquaint himself with the latest details of the Peary-Cook controversy.

That Commander Peary is prepared to substantiate by evidence his statement that Dr. Cook did not reach the pole is stated by nearly every one of the large colony of Arctic explorers, scientists and others who have gathered here to greet the explorer from the North.

Commander Peary will have with him incontestable proof to support statements he has made in connection with Dr. Cook's trip in the Arctic," said Mr. Bridgman today. "Every one who knows Peary realizes he never makes any statements unless he can prove them absolutely. When the proper time arrives, and that will be when Dr. Cook has made his statement over his own signature, the proofs will be forthcoming. I quite agree with President Hubbard of the Peary Arctic Club that Dr. Cook might have learned weeks ago, in Greenland, of Commander Peary's discovery, and that in the interim he wove the story of his discovery of the North Pole. News, you know, travels fast among the Eskimos."

Sydney is putting on a holiday appearance for the coming of Peary.
From flagstaves and windows United States flags are flung and the headquarters of the welcoming party is besieged with visitors inquiring for the latest news of the explorer.

The French warship Isly probably will remain in the harbor to aid in the welcome to Commander Peary.
No British warship is expected.

This is Marie Peary's birthday. She was born sixteen years ago in the Arctic region. Her maiden name is Abnighito, which was the name of the old Eskimo woman who made the little girl her first suit of fur clothes.
Mrs. Peary said the name, Abnighito, meant "sharp-pointed mountain." Miss Peary received a message of congratulation from her father and many resents.

The Roosevelt probably will encounter heavy seas in the Gulf of St.
Lawrence, as incoming skippers report stout northwest winds.

They say, also, that icebergs have been seen in the straits of Belle Isle.
In view of these conditions, Commander Peary doubtless will be delayed.

MUST HOLD HANDS
IF SPARK GOOD
Brethren in Amen Corner Nod Approval to Bishop Quayle's Pulpit Utterances.
Dallas, Tex., Sept. 13.—Discussing the tremendous advantages to a preacher of being a scientific "spark-er," Bishop W. O. Quayle, of Oklahoma City, said in the course of an address here that any pastor who does not know how to "spark" ought to be ashamed of himself. "And," he added, "there is no use of sparking a woman unless you can hold her hand. I can not explain why this is so, but I do know that it has to be done, for I have been there myself."
Judging from the prolonged applause and the repeated nods of approval by the listeners in the amen corner following the remark, it is taken that the Oklahoma Cityman has started something right here in sunny old Dalals.
Bishop Quayle was assigned to speak upon "Hall Caine and His Island," but he digressed several times to express his views on marriage and divorce, the influence of women and other questions. Here are a few of his sermonettes, gathered at random:
"A foe of the home is always destructive of good order, civilization and decency."
"Slums are wherever deviltry is. I have seen slums in boulevards and in the homes of millionaires."
"The solitary thing that keeps the world decent is the home. Abolish it and the world will go to the devil."
"Marrying is the greatest thing in the world, but from its very commonness we do not appreciate the fact."
"Any one who shuns a woman's love insults the race. The world's life never gets and stays above the level of womanhood."
"In America man is a sort of a pocketbook for woman. She wants him around at night because he is then about as good as a poodle."

CONTINUED DROUTH WILL DETERIORATE LAND VALUES SCHOOL LANDS SOON TO BE SOLD IN PART OF STATE WHERE IRRIGATION IS NECESSARY TO AGRICULTURE.
School Interest and State Interest Should Produce General Interest Throughout Oklahoma.
Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 11.—Two unrelated circumstances, the unusually severe drouth of the present year and the coming sale of 1,050,000 acres of school lands in northwestern Oklahoma, have combined to cause a renewal of interest in the matter of irrigation for that part of Oklahoma. Beaver, Texas and Cimarron counties are burned up, and in consequence many settlers will this year practically abandon farms which would be worth $50 per acre if they only had sufficient water to insure the maturing of crops.
But the Panhandle country can do little toward any comprehensive irrigation system without the support and encouragement of the rest of the state, and in eastern and central Oklahoma the rainfall for the three years prior to 1909 had been so copious that any talk of irrigation was treated as a joke. Now, with practically all the state suffering from drouth, it is different and the farmer in central Oklahoma who has usually had more water than he wanted can feel for the farmer in the extreme western part of the state who very seldom has as much as he wants.
The school land question is also one that necessarily interests all parts of the state. Practically all of the so-called enabling act lands lie in the district where the only way that agriculture can ever be continuously and successfully carried on is by means of irrigation. With these lands coming on the market at the close of one of the driest years Oklahoma has ever experienced and all of the farms around them dry and parched, the prospects for the school fund of the state getting what it should from the proceeds of the sale is anything but good. If, however, there were some assurance that a scheme of irrigation would likely to be provided which would make the lands worth something from an agricultural standpoint, the sale would be much more ready and for better prices. And even if no immediate action is taken, the men who buy that land for agricultural purposes are bound to be added to the number of irrigation boosters and may assist in that way in getting some results.
Three plans were suggested by Dr. Newell, one of a permanent dam and headworks on the Cimarron river, the second for a storage reservoir by building an earthen dam at the Narrows, and the third for a pumping plant similar to the one at Garden City, Kan., which is really considered the most feasible of all.
The project for a permanent dam across the Cimarron would give the present canals a heading from which water can be taken whenever there is any in the stream. It would cost about $100,000 or $10 per acre for 10,000 acres. The scheme for an earthen dam and storage reservoir would cost probably $300,000 or $30 per acre, and would be rendered practically worthless in twenty years by the mud fillings that floods would necessarily carry.

The pumping plant scheme might be operated independently or in connection with the other two. The plant at Garden City was designed to supply 10,000 acres and its cost has been approximately $35 per acre. Two or three years may be required to demonstrate positively the success of that plant.

gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Sold his soul for five yoke of oxen. The 2nd man couldn't go because he had bought five yoke of oxen and he had to go to prove them. If he knew as much about oxen as I do, he never would have bought them before he had proved them. Think of selling a soul for five yoke of oxen. But there are people today selling their soul for less than five yoke of oxen.

Sold his soul because he had married a wife. Think of a man letting a marriage rob him of his soul. Nothing stands between a man and the salvation of his soul.

Mr. Kindred said his hearers would admit that these three men were in a predicament, would say, "I never made those excuses." But he reminded them that they had given various other excuses for not accepting Christ mentioning some of the common excuses made today.

There are too many hypocrites in the church, you say. It is too true, and if the churches would clean up and get rid of their members who were not living consistent christian lives, there would be many more souls saved. But Jesus Christ said there would always be hypocrites in the world. When a man has some kind of sin in his life that he doesn't want to give up, he tries to cover it by the sins of some one else. As Christ said to the disciples, so can the church say, "Let him that is without sin cast the stone."

I don't get into the church because I don't understand the Bible. You believe in the astronomers, but you don't understand about astronomy. You never will understand the Bible unless you study it a great deal. Did you understand about the I. O. O. F. or the Masons before you joined the lodge? Yet you say, "I never accept anything I don't understand."

It takes too much money. Illustration: An old negro was advising his marster not to worry about having lost his money in a bank failure back in Kentucky, for said he, "you couldn't take it with you when you died, and if you could it would melt."

I am afraid I couldn't hold out faithful. It is an awful thing to make a failure, but you couldn't make any worse failure in the church than you are making out of it and I would rather be in the church and make a few blunders and get up again. You can hold out if you try. If you fall many times, you can get up and pray God to forgive you and he will. I will wait until I get settled, or wait until I get out of debt. We are never settled in life. Today one of our great men was buried who thought he was settled. The only way to get settled is to get right with God.

I am as good as some people in the church. You always hold up the weak members, you don't dare to take the best, if you did you would look like a wheel barrow in an automobile parade. It is the confession of sin that opens the way to God. There is too much sinful pride in this world. We haven't got humility enough to confess that we are sinners.

I have got plenty of time. I want to know how much time you have. Do you know what the next month, week or day will bring forth? If some of you knew just how much time you have you would be scared within an inch of your life.

I don't like the excitement of the revival. I am going to wait till some other time. The normal condition of the church is a revival. We are not in the normal condition in this present day; if we were we would have a revival all the time. I don't believe in too much excitement, but if you could look at that soul as God sees it, you would cry, "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Because I want to have a good time. Some people have the idea that if you are a christian you can't have any pleasure. I have had more pleasure since I came into the church than I ever had before.

Am waiting for God to call me. God is calling you through me tonight. He called you when he said, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." "The spirit and the bride say come. And let him that heareth say, come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

God not only invites you, but makes it possible for you to come. God does not accept excuses, but forgives your sin.

There appeared to be a feeling of satisfaction, even of enthusiasm among the members of the Christian church over the prospects of a good revival occasion and the upbuilding of the church.

There were two church additions, being Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Timberlake. The subject of the evangelist tonight as announced will be "Pay Your Debts or Go to Jail."

It is to be hoped that such requirement is not enforced before the finish of the marketing of the fall crops.

101 RANCH GLAD NEWS.

Masters and mistresses of the lariat who can make a coil of slender rope act as if enchanted, are coming to town with the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which will spread its acres of canvas here for two performances on next Saturday. They are keen eyed and clean-hearted cowboys and girls, grown brown and strong on the tremendous stretches of Oklahoma range land owned by the Miller Bros. This is their annual "lark."

No cowboy is eligible to ride the prairie for the Miller Bros. unless he be practicedly proficient with the lariat, whose utility is required in almost every sphere of cowboy work. Branding, "cutting-out" the capture and subduing of horses and cattle, and the round-up would be impossible of accomplishment without its twisting aid. Constant daily resort to it makes the galloping cowboy's aim unerringly accurate.

Soon his restless vitality will not permit him to be satisfied with the sole ability to make his lariat perform prosaic duties. He experiments with knots and loops and fantastic turns. The possibilities fascinate him. With the grazing cattle as his audience, he spins and tests and practices hour after hour. The repertoire of the rope becomes his pride.

A hundred of these lariat magicians fresh from the plains, are with the 101 Ranch show. Rivalry among them is keen. Few of their tricks are alike. One handles a ninety foot stretch of rope in the exhibition; another prefers half the length. Chester Byer's feature feat is the tying a bow-knot in his rope as he curves above his head. Vester Pegg lies flat on his back as he performs, and Frank Mash stands on his head. Jimmy Kinney shows his ambidexterity by changing from hand to hand. Lon Deaton lassoes a horse by the nose, neck and one, two, three, or four legs as it gallops at top speed.

The infection of the rope lures too, the cowgirls to learn its wonders. The 101 Ranch girl wants action and stir and movement. No ping-pong or hide-an-peek for her. Her brother's skill piques her and stimulates her jealousy. She tries to outdo him—and sometimes succeeds.

In all the long, joy-giving program of Indian and ranch life and history which comprises the 10-ranch show entertainment, none is a greater source of amazed interest than the exploits of men and women who twirl the lariat.

PASTORS MEET.

At this morning's session of the pastor's association of the city of Ada, the motto which you will find at the head of the church directory was unanimously adopted as the battle cry.

We want every christian man and woman, boy and girl to help in reaching the desired result.

The slogan of the pastors' association is: EVERY BOY AND GIRL IN SUNDAY SCHOOL AND EVERYBODY AT CHURCH. C. C. B.

THE ADA ICE DECISION

BASED ON REHEARING OF THE ADA PLANT CASE WILL BE MADE SOON.

State Capital Reports that Re-Investigation Reveals Strong Evidence of Combination—Manager Booth of Tishomingo Plant Makes Damaging Admissions.

Guthrie, Oklahoma, September 13.—Still stronger indications of a combination among the ice men of the state than before were found at the rehearing of the Ada ice case granted by the corporation commission at the request of the ice company, according to Corporation Commissioner A. P. Watson, who returned home yesterday after conducting the Ada hearing.

Manager Booth of the Tishomingo ice plant, who was put on the witness stand to help out the Ada company, admitted in reply to questions from Commissioner Watson that he had been requested on behalf of a dozen different occasions to join a combination of ice men. He stated that he had destroyed part of the letters, but some of them still in his possession and promised to send the ones which he still had to the corporation commission. Some interesting developments are expected to follow the receipt of those letters.

The witness also admitted that he had slight surplus of ice on hand at all times, and could let the manager of the Ada plant or any other plant that wanted it have a carload almost any day. In view of that admission he was unable to explain, however how it happened that he had had to cancel the order of Mr. Jones of Ada, not affiliated with the ice plant there, for two cars of ice a week, after he had once agreed to make such a shipment.

Practically no new testimony was introduced in regard to local conditions in Ada, the same ground being covered for the most part as at the first hearing. The commissioner's final decision in this case, which will be announced in a few days, is not expected to modify in any material degree its former findings.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
